RE: Mr. Roy Quintanilla, Mr. Walter Denton, Mrs. Doris Concepcion and
Mr. Roland Sondia

Your Excellency:

As the Apostolic Administrator, I am writing to you out of courtesy to inform you that in addition to representing Mr. Roy Quintanilla, Mrs. Doris Concepcion, the estate of Mr. Joseph Quinata, and Mr. Walter Denton, I now represent Mr. Roland Sondia, regarding their sex-abuse and rape allegations against Anthony Sablan Apuron, Archbishop of Guam.

Please note that I have not heard back from the Archdiocesan Abuse Coordinator, Deacon Claros, who wrote to me introducing himself as the Archdiocesan Sex Abuse Coordinator, and the investigation that he will be coordinating. In response, I wrote to him asking for answers to a series of questions before I allowed him to interrogate my clients. I followed up with another letter and I gave you a courtesy copy of that follow-up letter. To this date, Deacon Claros has not responded in any way whatsoever.

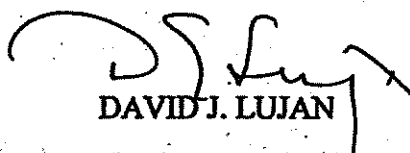

It also came out in the media quoting an archdiocesan press release that Mr. Sondia's letter was sent directly to Rome who will be responsible for handling the allegations against Archbishop Apuron. To date, I have not received personal notice from the archdiocese, or have personal knowledge of any other kind, that in fact that is what happened and that Rome is indeed handling the matter.

My question to you, if you so wish to response, is what is your position and role with respect to the allegations of my clients? Moreover, if the Archdiocese of Agana is in anyway involved in the investigation, assuming there is or will be an investigation, what is the role that Archbishop Apuron will play in light of the fact that he is still the Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Agana, a position that seems to trump over your "temporary" position and role as the Apostolic Administrator?

Finally, I would truly appreciate some kind of response to the questions I posed to Deacon Claros.

Si Yuus Mase.

DAVID J. LUJAN
